Networking Academy

Certificate of Course Completion

Jessica Angeles Resendiz Arroyo

has successfully achieved student level credential for completing the Cyber Threat Management course.

The student was able to proficiently:

- Explain why organizations must conform with specific compliance frameworks according to institutional context.
- Evaluate network and systems vulnerability.
- Given an organizational context, create a vulnerability assessment plan by identifying and describing relevant threats.
- Explain how IT systems vulnerability is assessed.
- Select security controls based on organizational relevance and create a risk management plan.
- Explain how organizations recover from cybersecurity exploits.
- Given organizational contexts, recommend disaster recovery and incident response activities.
- Explain how forensic investigations of internal and external security incidents are performed.

Scan to Verify

November 20, 2024

Laura Quintana

Laura Quintana
Vice President and General Manager
Cisco Networking Academy